

Please call 911 in all cases of medical emergencies.

Information for patients and families:

---

Info about fentanyl, where to get Naloxone Kits & more, visit: www.drugsfool.ca

Help Prevent Drug Use in Kids (Blog post)

<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/Blogs/PFH/Posting358.aspx#.Vk5T4tKrTmq>

Talking to Your Kids About Drugs (Blog post)

<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/Blogs/PFH/Posting305.aspx#.Vk5UJtKrTmq>

Talk to Your Kids About Drugs and Alcohol (Podcast)

<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/Blogs/podcasts/205.aspx#.Vk5UXtKrTmq>

One Bad Pill: A Mother's Story of Her Tragic Loss (Blog post)

<http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/Blogs/PFH/Posting320.aspx#.Vk5UAtKrTmq>

Information and resources for health care professionals:

---

Opioid Dependency Program: <http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/info/Page3086.aspx>

Fentanyl Listen & Learn:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UCAj2IBdIMA&feature=youtu.be>

Help is available:

---

Opioid Dependency Program: <http://www.albertahealthservices.ca/services/odp.aspx>

Alberta Methadone Clinics: <http://www.cpsa.ca/physician-prescribing-practices/methadone-program/methadone-clinics-alberta/>

Naloxone is a drug that can reverse a fentanyl overdose so long as it is given right away. For more information on Alberta's Take Home Naloxone program – including where to find Naloxone Kits - visit: www.drugsfool.ca

Need more information?:

---

Call Health Link at 811 or the Addiction Help Line at 1-866-332-2322

IT'S NEVER GOING TO BE YOU... UNTIL IT IS.

